№ 6 6 Numb 1418.

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, October 29 1706.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Nov. 2.

Cracow, Oct. 13.

THIS advis'd from Solec, that King Augustus pass'd the Vistula the 6th of this Month with his Saxon Troops; as the Poles did the 7th, and the Muscovites the 8th. The 7th the Generals and Prince Menzikow had a Conference in his Majesty's Presence; the Result of which was, that for maintaining good Discipline among the Troops, and preventing the committing of Disorders by the Calmuck-Tartars and Cossacks, Commissaries should be appointed on the Part of his Majesty and the said Prince, to take Cognizance of all Disorders, and punish the Criminals; since which 20 Cossacks have been taken and confin'd, and will be made an Example to others. The Palatin of Kiovia and other Adherents of King Stanislaus, having Intelligence of the March of this Army, retir'd from before them, and General Rhen is gone in pursuit of them with a Body of Muscovites.

Warsaw, Oct. 16. King Augustus continues his March in Pursuit of the Troops of the adverse Party, who are retir'd towards Czestochova to joyn General Mardefeld. Proclamation has been made in his Army by sound of Trumpet, that whoever shall commit any Disorders shall be punish'd with Death. Besides General Rhen, his Majesty has detach'd the Generals Fluck and Henckie in Pursuit of the Palatin of Kiovia and other Adherents of King Stanislaus, and has dispos'd of the confiscated Estates to the Persons of Quality and Generals that continue firm to his Interest.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Nov. 2.

Letters from Marienbourg of the 18th past advise, that the famous Staroft Smigielski, after having pillag'd or rais'd great Contributions on Lissa and several other Towns and Villages in great Poland formerly belonging to King Stanislaus, was come into Prussia with a Body of 5 or 6000 Men, to disperse or sieze the Recruits that were raising there for the said King Stanislaus; that having made several Detachments for that purpose on his Arrival near Thorn, one of those Detachments consisting of 300 Horse, took up in the Territory of Meva great Part of those Recruits, together with the Officers that had rais'd them; that another Detachment of 1500 Men had done the like in the Dioceses of Warmia; that 500 of the said Recruits had been dispers'd, besides what were siez'd; and that 50 of them were come to Marienbourg,

From the Amsterdam Courant. dated Nov. 2.

Dresden, Oct. 27. The Advices from Poland tell us, that King Augustus pursues his March with a very considerable Army, but 'twas not known on what Design; some suppose he intends to quarter his Troops this Winter in great Poland and other Provinces bordering on Silesia. In the mean time the Inhabitants of the Swedish Pomerania are in great Fear upon so many Forreign Troops being in Motion towards them, and several Persons remove elsewhither with their best Effects. The Staroft Smigielski commits great Spoil and Havock on the Lands belonging to King Stanislaus, 6 or 7 Regiments of Swedish Horse, are marching with Expedition towards the Oder, to joyn the Body under General Mardefeld.

From the Leid. and Amst. Gazette, dated Nov. 2.

Letters from Saxony of the 27th of October, say the Estates of that Electorate had separated, and that the King of Sweden had signified to them, that he had resolv'd to send his Commissaries into the several Divisions and Districts of Saxony, to settle the Manner of raising the Contributions he has demanded. Count Wratislaw is gone back to Vienna.

A Letter from a Swedish Officer.

Leipsich, Octob. 23. 'Yesterday Count Wratislaw 'had an Audience of Leave of the King of Swe- 'den, and to Day sets out on his Return to Vienna. 'He has express'd himself to be very well satisfied 'with the Answer given him by his Swedish ma- 'jesty; and has declar'd that the Emperour will 'not in any Manner support King Augustus, but 'rather endeavour to perswade him to an Accom- 'modation on the King of Sweden's Terms. We 'have Advice from Poland, that M Smigielski a 'Party Leader for King Augustus, advancing to the 'Town of Lissa has caus'd it to be pillag'd; which 'may give Occasion to King Stanislaus to do the 'like in Saxony, unless King Augustus put an End 'to such Disorders and make Satisfaction for this. 'All People wonder at such a Proceeding during the 'Suspension of Arms in this Country, while the 'Swedes being in Saxony have it in their Power to 'revenge it. Some Days ago Count Boinerburg 'had Audience of the King of Sweden, and assur'd 'him the Elector of Mentz his Master would no 'way engage himself in the War with King Au- 'gustus. The Mareschal Steinberg has given like 'Assurances on the Part of the Duke of Wolfenbut- 'tel, and is return'd home.

A Letter from the King of Sweden to the Emperour.

WE take for a certain Proof of your Majesty's Affection for us, your having been pleas'd to send to us the illustrious and noble John Wenceslaus Count of Wratislaw, your privy Councellor, Gentleman of your Bedchamber, and Chancellor of the Kingdom of Bohemia, a Person of consummate Prudence and Integrity. By whom as we have receiv'd fresh Assurance of your intire Friendship for us, so we do not think we have ever given your Majesty and the Estates of the German Empire Cause to entertain a sinister Opinion of our Intentions. On which Subject having open'd our Mind at large to the said Count, we doubt not that at his Return he will with that Fairness and Equity which we have found in him, inform your Majesty of our sincere Inclination and firm Resolution, to preserve

Bat
this rve our ancient Friendſhip and Alliance with on Germain Empire. We wiſh your Majeſty a long riva happy Reign, and Succeſs in all your Affairs.
